

5/10/17 – The Stitching Loft

The Stitching Loft is a Danbury-based custom embroidery and screen printing company that provides branded apparel and merchandise to anyone looking for that special touch! The business is dedicated to transforming everyday merchandise into personalized one-of-a-kind products.

Owner Sandy Jowdy Harriman credits the success of her business with “a reputation built on integrity.” This shows why clients continue to return to the Stitching Loft for all of their personalization needs. “The Stitching Loft’s mission is to provide quality products with personal customer service that is respectful, reliable and prompt,” Sandy said.

If you are a business owner, the Stitching Loft’s custom shop is exactly what you need to create products and designs that can be tailored to meet your specific interests and/or marketing needs. Soon you will see some of the Stitching Loft’s products at the new “Pour Me” café coming to Main Street this spring.

The Stitching Loft provides personal customer service and will even meet one-on-one with clients right in their place of business. In addition to branded apparel, they provide fundraiser items such as T-shirts, golf towels, duffel bags, tote bags and a wide variety of promotional gifts.

Merchandise is purchased from various reputable vendors and catalogs are available so clients have the opportunity to choose the apparel and/or accessories that best fit their business/organization needs.
